Peer was [illegible] Hanumān, a label stuck upon him and accepted from a Banaras Guru — and which kept clear of him when we later on introduced Him to Śrīla Ramana on the flaming Giri, Arunachala — and who graced Peer with the right name Śrī Ramana Giri: Peer — newly arrived from Sweden, the aristocratic educated Peer — was perhaps a little unconsciously snobbish or rather naturally full stuck in and nourished by this past and [illegible] religions, schools warring (philosophers; ideal concepts and lovely pious abstractions — themes — We responded kindly and gleefully accepting but perhaps he found we were not vitally interested — or sympathetically attracted to the learned ignorance and play in metaphysical concepts and abstractions — Peer was rather aristocratic and headcated — and Swedish — and, we a Danish — peasant plebeian uneducated and not specially in search of Guru. God or Self — except on sahaja natural lines — and actual practical living — a concrete Reality — an eye free [illegible] Śaṅkara Vedānta. So far did not see us — except this blindered concept or subjective truth conscious — as natural to all ego-guys. He had 2 years Indian scholarship in religion — on philosophical subject Vaiṣṇavism and Advaita Vedanta. We felt his Yogic nature blinkered — and perhaps too feverishly intense and impatient. Sincerity like petroleum is not enough. Maturity and participation in integral healthy life was not of T.P. — yet during his 8 years play in Yogic Sadhana here. The germ [illegible] and border came to grief — as [illegible] many intense but sincere tryers: Purity and sincerity were there and Peer no doubt acted right widely and inevitably in the Swadharma and karma in Śrīla's life apparently came through — and would be indifferent to borrowed [illegible] — [illegible] to what we call Life, pure and real truths and types [illegible] which Peer's Ramana guru (Śrīla) is truly worthshipped in — It is easy to be a guru in India or to be recognised as a Sahajawallah in Q.E. — Europe — Difficult to escape — says Guru Ways for guru God and Self — Grace and awareness are eventually one and the Same — in integral Living the [illegible] freely, specially for western conditioned guys — to live it integrally — so truly in what we call life in the Reality pain joy of Eternity and in glorious effortlessness many immature Westerners undisciplined psyches come to grief in Himalayan Yoga: striving without inner tradition and trained intuition. Thus the dis-eased psyche and seemingly immature body and mind: death. Balance intuitively and artfully on the razor's edge advises your Wife and alchemist Nicholas Flamel, say: "Take therefore the Solar and the Lunar mercury and cherish them over a fire in the alembic. But it must not be a fire of shavings nor of any wood, but a bright, shining fire, like the Sun itself — or the grail: glow — whose heat must never be excessive — but always of one and the same degree —. Wm

Peel left his bodies soon after having written in his "last bill In a physical body of 25 - tall dark haired very strong both yet gracious & sturdy — secretary work — more hard to learn & but clerical work, yet he was fairly practical servant free and self ma[illegible] in it. In the upper Sunya: cave on hill crest — with vast v[illegible] — and in vast silence he was thus gra [illegible] his Paramhansa — [illegible] — and absorbing the hoary Wisdo that is Brahm and Shiva Alaya. He could be lovely alone and [illegible] to be freely naked in the pure beauty — without physica and psychological fig leaves, and rags, & ego-deceit. Thus we found him. part of himalayan — the birds — and original [illegible] worked in unity with [illegible] — or it right. and we found or raking pinecones [illegible] — and ahasha valley grass was [illegible] by transmuting [illegible] — [illegible] — [illegible] —