

Dear Bhairji

Kali Mat

ALMORAMP

Sept 1 - 1946

In our solitude we can hardly cope with correspondence and the little necessary reading - but we thank you for letter - and also for letting us have the MS of Gunge Mai We have read the first part with pleasure and marvel at your good English flow of words - poetic and devotional - We hope you find a publisher - try half of it first - if you consider it - as a whole - We have no criticism to offer and know of no publisher - or of how an Indian public would react. - Your thought-feeling and homage to Gunge Mai - will be shared by many Hindus but among literary English speaking people perhaps less so as they are often so philtreated. However give luck or destiny a chance, and find a suitable publisher - It is lovely to have these poetic feeling thought and images in your daily activities - and artistic play.

You may have given up - a nice young man
