 to Himalayan Bharat. The Realm of Grace is within and also there Eminent El innerstands:

 well to love and to give, to aware and to radiate light and lightness in Karma-awareness and - All-Rightness in Swa Sila, Swa Dharma & Swa Dharma.

Affectionate awareness can imply also affectionate Detachment regarding things, happenings and events egoic - There is no Real Detachment in Snyaji.

 as we have escaped "headication", so we seem to have ~~escaped~~ the now dying civilization, being in it, but not of it, not conditioned in mental or emotional impositions, possessions and ego-fetters.

We have no commitments in the interplay here, but do, once weekly, respond to ego-questions from

3. Old and new friends, Iasp in. upon us in our spacious apartment or kidnap us for drives or for visits in their homes. So we enjoy every day at joyous ease - and are never lonely in solitude: Aloneness can be Alloneness. Life is the greatest miracle - and "tat tvan asi" - Being-Awareness-Grace. Our tiny sanctuary suffered a Yankee invasion. and to Robert Shapiro's peremptory "invitation" "You'll be in California next year" - our immediate reply was "We have nothing to teach". He shouted back - "That's why we want you" - and Virginia Satir shouted "I can see him coming". Perhaps she was clairvoyant in prevision. We had not the slightest desire to go anywhere and no interest in the small activities and external wanderings in the Far West, but the fantastic, impossible miracle had to happen, had to happen upon us, in the ~~Durga~~ pranabha karma. When Bob later was sent us the $1000 return ticket Delhi-San Francisco he wrote to Sri Wiji: "Reality-wise - Sanyasi doesn't need to do anything.", which Wiji considers a mature discernment - and a great compliment to Being - and being aware - in naturalness - spontaneity and Grace-awareness. Ramana Maharishi's only reminder to us was, "We are always - aware, Sanyasi." The Wind of the wayward Spirit is likely to blow us (i.e. bodyji, egoji - wiji and I) to Chicago on the 14th of June for one month. It bloweth where it listeth and must, and so things, events and miracles happen upon us in parallel - destiny, wii!
